

LAST UPDATED 18 November 2007

BANT MEMBERSHIP CLASSES 2007-2008

Class	Description	Designation	Voting Rights	Register Option	Fee
FULL	1) Practising – Fully qualified Nutritional Therapist, subject to Continuing Professional Development, fully insured and on the Register of Practitioners	MBANT	Yes	Yes	£75
	2) Non-Practising – Fully qualified Nutritional Therapist, subject to Continuing Professional Development but not actively practising	MBANT	Yes	Yes	£75
	3) Discounted – Fully qualified Nutritional Therapists over 65 (at a discounted rate) subject to Continuing Professional Development, fully insured if on the Directory of Practitioners	MBANT	Yes	Yes	£25
FELLOW	Fellowship status conferred on BANT members who have made considerable contributions to the organisation. Fellowship status and Membership to be decided by a Nominations Committee	FBANT	Yes	Yes	£75
STUDENT	Any student enrolled on a nutrition/food science course that has been accredited by the Nutritional Therapy Council, whose intent is to become a Full member of BANT Note: Any students in clinical practice before graduation are Licentiates of their own training provider who must take full responsibility for their students and their insurance status.	BANT (Sdnt)	No	No	£25
HONORARY FELLOW	Appointment for Honorary Fellow Membership must be made by Council. Any recommendations to be submitted once annually by a Nominations Committee. Criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>o nominee is not a member of BANT</li> <li>o nominee has either promoted the science and application of nutrition or has provided exceptional service to BANT. Honorary status may be conferred on individuals from any profession and is not limited to UK residents.</li> </ul>	BANT (Hon.)	No	No	No Fee